SECURITY EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

A research and advisory firm

Micro Custom Services

Recent SEC research confirms security budgets and staffing are being cut across organizations, and spending on outside security services is under intense pressure. SEC's Micro Custom Services was created specifically to help organizations maintain effective security programs despite these constraints. Our approach focuses on achieving 5-dimensional security status using our research, practical tools, targeted programs, and proven strategies. SEC works with organizations of any size and budget. SEC's Micro Custom Services range from free offerings to advanced program reviews starting at $20,000+, allowing clients to scale the continuous improvement of their Security program to match the risk management needs of their organization.
